Winners of the 2017 Royal Overseas League competition and with a BBC Prom appearance already under their belt, this is a group not to miss.

● Norburton Hall

Lunch with Wolfgang and Franz

With its soaring opening theme, an exquisitely counterpointed second movement lullaby and gypsy-inspired finale, Schubert's Piano Trio No. 1 in B-flat major is one of his best loved chamber music works. In 1778 a 22 year-old Mozart was in Paris seeking employment without success. He wrote the E minor sonata, 'one of the miracles among Mozart's works', on learning of his mother's death.

Caroline Dowdle piano, David Juritz violin,
Adrian Bradbury cello

8PM TUESDAY 15 AUGUST

The Alexandra Ridout Quintet

● St Mary's Church

'We were enchanted by Alexandra's presence as a musician, her sound, but I think most importantly there was a relationship with the blues and swinging that sounds important in her playing'

Julian Joseph, Chair of the jury of the BBC Young Musician Jazz Award 2016

Some rising stars are easier to spot than others! 2016 BBC Young Musician Jazz Award winner Alexandra Ridout fronts her own band, a teenaged quintet of the UK's hottest young jazz talents who have already wowed audiences at the Manchester Jazz Festival and Pizza Express Soho with their ballads, funk and swing jazz.

7PM WEDNESDAY 16 AUGUST

Chamber Concert

● St Mary's Church

Two Europeans in America. Dvorak's 'American' string quartet draws inspiration from life in the new world; its music, birdsong and even its railways. Mario Castelnuovo-Tedesco's 1951 Quintet for Guitar and Strings fizzes with the same energy and optimism, as does Haydn's Piano Concerto in D major in a transcription for accordion.

9.45PM WEDNESDAY 16 AUGUST

7PM THURSDAY 17 AUGUST

The Atéa Wind Quintet

● St Mary's Church

The Atéa Wind Quintet start the evening with repertoire from their debut CD. Francis Poulenc's Sextet for piano and wind was dismissed by critics as shallow and vulgar. They were wrong! Louis Spohr's Nonet, written for an eccentric Viennese industrialist has been a favourite with musicians and audiences since its first performance.
