FESTIVAL OF MUSIC AND ART

16th to 23rd August 2008

This year's Festival will run from SATURDAY 16TH to SATURDAY 23RD AUGUST and should be more enjoyable than ever as it includes a wide range of music, song, words and art.

THE FESTIVAL PROGRAMME includes

SOME FAVOURITES

Once again David Juritz, Leader of the London Mozart Players and our artistic director, has arranged for many of the outstanding soloists, who have delighted us with their performances in previous years, to be with us this year, along with the London Festival Players. These include Claire Bradshaw mezzo-soprano, Caroline Dowdle keyboard, Craig Ogden guitar, Milos Milivojevic accordion, Adrian Bradbury cello and Neil Black oboe. The London Tango Quintet will be once again playing classical tango pieces in a concert programme along with baroque music. Individual soloists will be giving late night recitals lasting about 30 minutes, as last year, after the main concerts.

David Juritz

SOME NEWCOMERS AND INNOVATIONS

This year's new inclusions are the exciting jazz group 6PAC and the outstanding young Dutch musicians of the Lendvai String Trio.

An exciting new venture will be our workshop for young musicians with a chance to perform as part of an orchestra with some of the artists.

The Occasional Singers are returning to join in another innovation; an evening of prose, verse and song presented by Hilary Bosworth and John Surry.

This year the finale concert will be on Friday evening and the festival will end with a Ceilidh in the village hall.

WEST COUNTRY ART EXHIBITION

Following the success of the shows in the last three years, another art exhibition will be staged in the village hall from Tuesday evening 19th August to Saturday 23rd August. This will show paintings, pottery, ceramics and other craft work by over 50 artists from the West Country.

6pac Jazz Sextet

The award winning 6pac Jazz Sextet play some of the great classics of traditional and modern jazz

L to R; Russell Bennett trumpet/flugelhorn, Richard Wigley trombone, Gavin Barras bass, Ben Gray drums, Andrew Stamatakis-Brown piano and Kenji Fenton tenor sax/clarinet.

The band continues to perform new music as well as putting their distinctive mark on jazz standards. Their second album, 'Business as Usual', has now been released. The band performs all over the UK, from the Isle of Wight to Dunfermline, at festivals including Manchester, IOW, and Peterborough; chamber music societies including St Martin in-the-Field, Macclesfield, and Saddleworth; and weddings everywhere else! 6pac have also performed for BBC Songs of Praise. Education and outreach work is also an important part of the groups work. As well as being part of the Live Music Now scheme, 6pac also holds its own week-long summer school as part of Dartington Plus in Totnes, Devon.

Sunday 17 August 7.30pm Village Hall

A look at life through the ages

Hilary Bosworth, John Surry and The Occasional Singers will be taking a largely light-hearted look at Children and Parents, Love and Marriage with the help of, amongst others, Thomas Hardy, U A Fanthorpe, Daisy Ashford, Fleur Adcock, Connie Bensley, Ralph Vaughan Williams, Gustav Holst and Gerald Finzi. The evening will open with an instructive world première.

Hilary and John are members of the Encore Theatre Club and played Mr and Mrs Hardcastle in the recent production of “She Stoops To Conquer” at the Bridport Arts Centre. In 2004 they appeared as father and daughter in “The Heiress”, a scene from which is included in the programme.

The Occasional Singers, directed by Rick Birley and Richard Hall, are well known to West Dorset audiences. This will be the third year that they have taken part in the festival.

Monday 18 August 10.00am Village Hall

Workshop for young musicians

A chance for children of all ages, whatever their instrument, to come along, play and have fun in a morning workshop taken by some of our visiting musicians, and then, in the evening, perform in an orchestra alongside artists taking part in the Festival. Mid morning refreshments and snack lunch will be provided. The evening concert will include solo performances by guest musicians.

Amongst those taking part will be:

Adrian Bradbury (cello), who read Veterinary Sciences and Music at Churchill College, Cambridge, before further study at the Royal Academy of Music and in Berlin. He is cellist in the Composers Ensemble (winners of the Royal Philharmonic Society Ensemble Award in 2002) and other leading chamber ensembles and gives regular Performance Classes at the RAM where he is also Music and Science co-ordinator.

Claudia Lashmore Bennett (flute) who since finishing her graduate and post graduate degrees at the Royal Northern College of music two years ago, combines a busy freelance life with teaching at the prestigious Cheethams Music School in Manchester.

Bridget Pearse (violin) is well known locally and her experience spreads across the classical and folk world.

The young players will be joined in the afternoon by the Festival's artistic director, David Juritz, who combines a busy solo career with that of leader of the London Mozart Players, and is guest leader of the Royal and London Philharmonic Orchestras, amongst many others.

Parents: please contact Mike Southgate if you would like your child(ren) to participate.
